

The Aspen Family Business Group Presents 2023 Family Business Program A Multi-family Gathering June 22-25th in Hood River, OR

Join us in Oregon for a multi-family gathering

Building on the success of our 2022 program in Telluride, the Aspen Family Business Group is once again hosting a multi-family gathering. This June we will explore:

- The implications of change and economic uncertainty for us as individuals, families, business, and members of the rising generation
- Practical tools for staying aligned with values and purpose through high level communication
- Developing strategies for converting business threats into opportunities for growth
- Understanding how best practices support our journey
- Learning what other business owning families and expert advisors think about the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead

- Action steps for making the most of our future together

Pre-conference June 21

In response to the requests of numerous attendees of the Women in Family Business programs conducted by Leslie Dashew, we are offering a pre-conference session for men. It has been said that the skills of navigation for a boatsmen are not unlike the skills needed to navigate a meaningful and purpose-driven life. The session will include “living the river metaphor” with a white water rafting trip on the White Salmon (or Deschutes) with discussion points built into the day about the issues, challenges, and hopes facing both fathers and sons in family business. Cost for the pre-conference day is $425 per person which includes a half-day rafting trip, transportation from the Hood River Inn, and lunch. To reserve your spot, contact donnel@aspenfamilybusiness.com

Faculty

Leslie Dashew is known to most of you for the Women in Family Business Program. She has been working with business-owning families for close to 40 years and has published 4 books related to this topic.
